

Dear student activist -

On Saturday 27th May activists and campaigners from a range of backgrounds will come together at the University of Sussex to discuss ideas and plan campaigns and actions for the next year.

After NUS conference and a year of campaigning across UK campuses, how can we build a united, activist network in the student movement?

Any activist organization or individual is welcome to attend or help facilitate the event.

If you have any suggestions for workshops, discussions or debates that you'd like to see taking place on 27th May, please get back to us before 4th May.

Please put the date in your diary. For more info, please get in touch.

Sessions so far will include:

Debates

Should Student Unions affiliate to NUS? * How can we fight racism? * Feminist campaigning: what works? * Which way forward for the student left?

Workshops

International solidarity campaigning * Fair trade and climate change * Anti-arms trade campaigning * Killer Coke: fighting Coca-Cola in the student movement * Power and change - changing power structures * After the NATFHE/AUT dispute: solidarity with workers on campus and beyond
